

TRACK RULES

RACER'S EDGE RULES & REGULATIONS

All Racers Must Sign a Waiver & Release of Liability Form

Racers less than 18 Yrs. of age need a parent or legal guardian to sign a Waiver & Release of Liability Form

All Racers Must attend a briefing session on racing safety & regulations

All racers must be a minimum height of 50". For the safety of all drivers, especially the younger ones, the 50" height requirement will be strictly enforced.

All Racers will be provided helmets, and neckguards, which must be worn at ALL times during the race

Racer's Edge will not tolerate bumping, blocking or any kind of contact with other Karts

Racer's Edge has a strict Zero-Tolerance Policy regarding alcohol or substance abuse. Anyone who appears to be under the influence will not be permitted to race

Kart Racing poses risks to people with neck or back problems, heart conditions & anyone who is pregnant

All Racers Must wear closed toe shoes

Never stop on the track for any reason

Be cautious of other Drivers

Respect the Flags

RACER'S EDGE □ FLAGS TO RESPECT

Green Flag - Signals the start of a race

Yellow Flag - Extreme caution, slow down

Blue/Yellow Flag - Shown to a driver who Must move over as he is being passed by a faster driver

Black Flag - Racer disqualified & must exit the track with caution as soon as it is safe to do so

Red Flag - Race Stopped

White Flag - One lap left to go in Race

Checkered Flag - Race is Finished

PLEASE NOTE: The first racer to complete either 16 laps or 11 laps will end the race. Slower or less experienced racers may not complete all 16 or 11 laps, depending upon their skill level.